WEEK 2

Wednesday 19 July

Ages: 12 – 17

DANCING LINES

There's more to drawing than creating realistic images. What if the lines we draw were free to jump off the paper and become objects in space? Using simple materials and processes, this workshop combines sculpture and drawing as a way of exploring the world around us.

Artist: Tom Borgas

Thursday 20 July

Ages: 5 – 12

DOT PAINTING

This workshop will demonstrate three different techniques: dotting, raak/rakk and x-ray art culminating in your own beautiful painting on canvas or a boomerang.

Artist: Nikki Carabetta

TINY TIN TALISMANS

Come along and try your hand at metal tooling and embossing. Create objects that can be worn, used as a container, or hung on your wall. A talisman is an object that brings good luck or is thought to have magical powers, but it is only made magical by the person who creates it.

Artist: Rebecca Prince

Friday 21 July

Ages: 10 – 17

PORTRAITS WITH PERSONALITY

Is a picture really worth a thousand words? Using oil pastel, participants will focus on creating a portrait from a live model, capturing not just a representation of what they look like, but also a representation of their personality.

WEEK 2

Monday 17 July

Ages: 5 – 12

CAMERA OBSCURAS

This workshop takes you back in time to experience the magic of the first camera and illuminate the beautiful and strange within our everyday environment. Using some simple materials you will construct your very own shoebox camera obscura and see the world in a whole new way.

Artist: Heidi Kenyon

FLIP-BOOKS

Take technology out of the mix and learn how to create moving pictures and repeating patterns by using collage and illustration. In this workshop you will create a flip book and become the director of your own (very) short film.

Artist: Alise Hardy

Tuesday 18 July

Ages: 12 – 17

ILLUSTRATION

Bring your ideas to life with illustration. Explore figure drawing, character design and perspective, and then use mixed media techniques in colour to depict a detailed and dynamic story scene starring our own original characters.
