Creative Christmas cheer at Carclew Dusk Arts Market

The manicured gardens of Carclew will be transformed into a festive dusk market featuring the works of South Australian artists on Tuesday December 10.

The free Carclew Dusk Arts Market is open to the general public – providing the perfect opportunity to soak up the summer atmosphere and perhaps even snap up some bespoke Christmas gifts.

On the night, local artists and designers will be selling hand crafted jewellery, art and fashion.

Guests will also be treated to an evening of live music from Ash Gale and Myles Mayo & Band, with special appearances by Choral Grief whose a capella renditions of well-loved carols will bring the Christmas spirit.

There will also be the opportunity to be tempted by a selection of vendors from Adelaide's food truck revolution, discover 3D printing with a demonstration from Fab Lab, and children can participate in a free creative workshop.
