Kids get creative with Carclew at WOMADelaide

Carclew Youth Arts will again be running a series of free creative workshops for young people aged 5-12 years at WOMADelaide over the long weekend.

From Saturday 9 – Monday 11 March, the free workshops will be run in the KidZone area from 12.30 – 5.45pm daily.

Each day will feature four different workshops exploring a variety of cultural and traditional artforms. From African drumming and Ngarrindjeri basket weaving to Greek shadow puppets and Japanese origami, the children of WOMADelaide can take a creative journey across the globe.

“Workshops are offered free of charge but bookings are essential. Workshop places always fill up so we suggest securing your child’s place at the beginning of each day,” said Leah Fort, Carclew Project Officer.
