Carclew Ballroom Gallery

Welcome and thank you for considering hiring historic Carclew for your exhibition.

Carclew's Ballroom is a highly adaptable room overlooking the garden and the golf course beyond. It provides late Victorian elegance with modern charm, featuring polished wooden floors and decorative high ceilings.

The Ballroom is equipped with a hanging system and gallery lighting. The overall potential hanging space spans 3.2 metres high by 25.2 metres wide and is comprised of individual segments which vary in size, between 1 metre and 6.1 metres wide.

We are excited to advise that from October 2016, Carclew will have a full-size Steinway grand piano in the Ballroom which can be hired for an additional cost.

You may also be interested to know that all money raised through venue hire supports Carclew's work with children, young people and early career artists. In addition, Carclew can suggest brilliant young artists and musicians to perform at your function and/or prepare and deliver a range of exceptional arts-based activities for children.

Carclew is free from contracted caterers, equipment and technical suppliers, which means you are free to choose and arrange your own. We can provide a list of reliable suggested suppliers that are familiar with Carclew.
