From the Chief Executive

In October 2022, Carclew celebrated its 50th birthday, marking half a century as one of Australia's largest and most-loved cultural institutions for children and young people. This milestone kicked off a year of celebrations and activities at Carclew and across the state. The 2022-23 year also marked the end of an era with Carclew's CEO of 15 years, Tricia Walton, finishing her tenure. A well-loved arts leader in South Australia, Tricia shaped the last decade and a half at Carclew, and I want to recognise and thank her for her care and commitment.

Over 500,000 children and young people have contributed to Carclew's story over the past 50 years, not to mention the parents, teachers, families and communities who also have played a vital part in the institution's history. In the last 12 months, our programs and funded companies have delivered almost 5300 workshops to audiences of all ages. Overall, nearly 80,000 people have engaged with Carclew and its funded company events, workshops and performances.

Carclew is both the literal and metaphoric home for creativity for young people in South Australia. From its headquarters in a beautiful heritage house in North Adelaide, Carclew delivers programs across the state: in schools through our valued partnership with the Department for Education; through circus workshops at the incredible Cirkidz hub in Bowden; in community programs such as Pom Pom in Davoren Park or ExpressWay and Stage Sparks in Onkaparinga; regionally through our funded companies Riverland Youth Theatre in Renmark and D'faces in Whyalla; and remotely through our touring work via Carclew initiatives such as the Gig Rig and Culture Beats. Our programs reach from metropolitan Adelaide to the APY Lands and everywhere in between. Regional and remote activities represent 35% of our programming, with 25% of participants identifying as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander. We have partnered with 2,800 schools and over 1,000 communities, giving opportunities to nearly 600 early-career artists through direct engagement, funding and development opportunities.

As a chapter of Carclew's story finishes and another one begins, there is excitement and optimism in the house as we look to the past to plan our future. This is a time of both reflection and regeneration. Carclew is the beating heart of creativity for children and young people in this state, and this coming year will see the release of our new strategic vision filled with bold ideas for South Australia.

We are a vital part of delivering on the state's economic mission to build South Australia's talent and elevate the voices of tomorrow's decision-makers. We are a critical conduit for the innovation and creativity of children across the state, our programs and funding delivering opportunities to discover joy, wellbeing, career pathways, personal development and new ideas.

As Carclew looks forward to the next 50 years, I'm honoured to take the reigns as CEO. In celebrating our half-century of successes, I find myself reflecting on the energy, excitement and renewal brought by the past year. There is nowhere more invigorating and innovative than a youth arts organisation. Anything is possible and we have five decades of experience to help build a vibrant and creative future for children and young people.

Someone recently said to me, "When I was a kid, I always knew that Carclew meant fun."

I couldn't agree more.

2022-23 Activity Summary

For 50 years, Carclew has provided artistic and creative opportunities to children and young people. Our 2022-23 year saw 4500 young people participate in Carclew's core programs through schools, communities and in early-career development opportunities. Including our funded companies and service providers, that participation number jumps to over 40,000 children, families and audiences across South Australia.

Carclew's dedicated programs generated nearly $640,000, paid to early-career artists through contract, casual and full-time employment. An additional $1.1m was paid to artists working through Carclew's workshops, companies and events.

Diversity is at the core of Carclew's programming. Out of our 2022-2023 participants, 25% identified as Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander, 35% were regional and remote, and 4% identified as having a disability.

Program – Early Careers:

Sharehouse

17 participant artists | 5 exhibitions including SALA Festival | 391 audience

Sharehouse is a vital part of our emerging-careers program. Every calendar year, early-career artists are invited in as Sharehouse residents. With representation across all artforms, the Residents utilise Carclew House studio spaces to develop their creative practice, with support and assistance from experienced Carclew staff and sector leaders. The Curator in Residence coordinates visual art exhibitions in the building's public spaces, showcasing works by young and emerging South Australian artists.

Emerging Creative Producers

7 participant artists | 731 audience

Throughout the year, experienced mentors support emerging creative producers in program activations at the Carclew House and grounds. Outcomes include youth-led events providing employment, professional development and connection for young creatives.

Included among the 2022-2023 event highlights is DevFest, a week-long program which provided emerging artists with the opportunity to develop new and experimental artistic works. Running from August 15-20, DevFest's final day highlighted works in progress from 16 artists.

Embrace was a weekend-long arts festival (September 23-25) that focused on work made by disabled artists. Saturday night's Embrace Gala, held at Nexus Arts, engaged 10 disabled early-career artists to perform.

Carclew's annual Backyard Picnic, presented in partnership with Adelaide Fringe through Arts Industry Collaboration funding, has continued to build on its success each year. With 300 attendees, 2023 was another sell-out event and saw 30 emerging artists entertaining audiences with music performances, poetry readings, an interactive theatre work, and short film screenings.

Funding Programs – Grants, Fellowships and Funded Companies

32 independent artists received $300,701 | 9 organisations received $631,888

Carclew's funding programs support emerging artists to become established professionals. Programs include project and development grants, as well as Fellowships that support self-designed programs of professional development activity.

A total of 85 applications were received from young artists across the state in both Project and Development rounds throughout the 2022-23 period, with strong representation across all artforms, including film, creative writing, music, dance, live performances, and visual and digital arts. The grants contribute significantly to the growth and development of the state's arts and cultural sector by showcasing South Australia's finest emerging artists. Of note from this period is the high volume of applicants from the music sector, demonstrating the power of Adelaide's designation as a UNESCO Creative City of Music and the importance of investment in the music industry's future leaders. Some examples of the talented artists being acknowledged in these rounds were: regionally based country musician Ellen Tefanis, who received a grant to attend the 2023 Americana Fest in Nashville, Tennessee, to grow and create new connections within the global music community; filmmaker Dante Niedzwiedz, who received support to create a 10-minute sci-fi coming-of-age film M-8; and visual artist Kristal Matthews (Ngunawal), who was supported to create a mural with Goolwa Children's Centre.

In addition to funding individual projects within the Project and Development rounds, Carclew offers opportunities for organisations working with young creatives to apply for funding to facilitate projects focused on career development. A total of $60,000 in funding was granted to three organisations – Girls Rock!, Adelaide Contemporary Experimental (ACE), and City of Onkaparinga – to facilitate various youth-orientated engagement activity. Girls Rock! Adelaide used this funding to run Rock Camp in 2023, a week-long music mentoring program for South Australian girls, gender-diverse and transmasculine youth aged 10-17 years.

One organisation received valuable capacity building funding which provided much-needed sustainability to continue their youth-focused activity. Two applications were received with Jazz SA to develop their 3-5 Year Strategic Plan.

Carclew's Fellowships program supports practitioners to establish their careers through roles in the arts industry, including technical, administration and production, as well as artists practicing in all creative mediums. Artists are invited to pitch a professional development proposal to take part in the program. In 2022-2023, 23 applications were received, resulting in the talents of 9 individual artists being acknowledged in this year's Fellowship funding round. As was the case with other funding rounds, the funding committee received applications from a wide range of artforms, with theatre being represented the most in this round. Some of the high calibre of talented artists and activity being rewarded included: musician and ATSI applicant Kyron Weetra, who received support to fund a trip back to Country in order to learn the Narrungga language; theatre artist Zola Allen, to travel to Paris to attend an 8-week course at École Philippe Gaulier for training in Shakespeare, Chekov, Character and Clowning; and filmmaker Scarlett Scherer, to undertake five short courses run by the Australian Film Television and Radio School (AFTRS) and National Institute of Dramatic Art (NIDA).

Through the Funded Companies program, Carclew invests in small youth arts companies in South Australia to support access to fundamental cultural rights for children and teens who have few creative opportunities (including those affected by geographic isolation). In 2022-23, Carclew provided funding to: Restless Dance Theatre; SA Circus School: Home of Cirkidz; D'faces of Youth Arts (Whyalla); Riverland Youth Theatre (Renmark); the Kurruru program, delivered by Kura Yerlo Inc in western metropolitan Adelaide; and Musica Viva Australia in Schools, funded for programs in Category 1-4 schools.

Some of the highlights that have eventuated from Carclew's partnerships with these companies include:

Cirkidz – award-winning Fringe show METTLE by the Troupe; partnering with ORSR and the OCA communities of Oodnadatta, Andamooka, Marree, Copley and Leigh Creek to deliver a year-round circus program;

Riverland Youth Theatre - receiving the For The Locals award at the Renmark Paringa Network business awards;

D'faces - increased participation numbers and enhancement from families and young children engaging with the Kanga Gym program; increased skills development opportunities for young mentors; successful theatre season of The Totally Unofficial and Classified Guide to Surviving the Impossible, the first long-form traditional theatre piece collaboratively created by D'faces participants.

Program – Communities

Theatre in the South - ExpressWay Arts and Stage Sparks

84 workshops | 212 students attending | 550 audience members

Carclew delivered Stage Sparks and ExpressWay Arts, two community arts programs aimed at nurturing creativity in the Southern suburbs.

Stage Sparks is a free performing arts program supported by Anglicare's Communities for Children, targeted at children aged 5-12 years. Professional artists – highly trained and experienced in working with children – lead after-school workshops in theatre, circus, singing and dance. Involvement is offered on a range of levels, from the curious beginner to the aspirational artist, supporting children to express themselves creatively while developing their confidence in a safe and fun environment. Delivered weekly, the sessions are held at the Port Noarlunga Arts Centre and the Aldinga Institute.

The ExpressWay Arts Program is an initiative of Carclew and the City of Onkaparinga, delivered at the Port Noarlunga Arts Centre. Young people aged 13-24 meet every Friday of the school term and have the opportunity to be mentored by professional practicing arts practitioners who facilitate and lead the sessions.

Utilising their own personal life experiences, group members explore complex social issues with the aim to develop and deliver performance theatre. In 2023, the ExpressWay Arts ensemble participated in the DreamBIG Children's Festival, presenting an entire theatre performance. This provided participating young people with the opportunity to see a production developed from its initial stages through to audience delivery – a valuable undertaking for the group, especially for the many members with creative career ambitions.

Pom Pom & Pom Pom Y.A.

380 registrations | 1115 total attendance | 31 artists engaged

A contemporary visual art space in the outer northern suburbs of Adelaide, Pom Pom offers free workshops for children aged 0-12, delivered in partnership with Anglicare SA. Pom Pom provides hands-on creative studio sessions with leading arts practitioners on Saturdays and in school holidays. These sessions support creative engagement to build confidence and strengthen connections and community cohesion.

The Pom Y.A. teen program launched in 2023 in partnership with the City of Playford, offering an additional session on Tuesdays for those aged 10-17.

Tjitjiku Tjukurpa

300 participants

The Tjitjiku Tjukurpa online learning resource was launched at the opening of Carclew's Tutu Karralikanungku exhibition on Friday 23 September, featuring multi-disciplinary works from Carclew's recent and historical arts programs collaborating with First Nations Elders, artists, communities, schools and young people across South Australia over the past 29 years.

The launch coincided with WIPCE (World Indigenous Peoples' Conference on Education) and the Australia Council First Nations Summit – Celebrating 50 Years. Iwiri Aboriginal Corporation supported the launch with a performance of Inma, along with a speech by Lee-Ann Buckskin and a screening of the promotional video. The project was then presented at WIPCE by Carclew staff and artists.

50th Birthday Celebrations

557 participants | $30,000 raised | 100 donors

In celebration of 50 years, Carclew delivered a calendar of events and activities centred around the 50th Birthday Party on 26 November 2022 which welcomed over 200 attendees to Carclew House. Other highlights include Carclew's History Project, the Tutu Karralikanungku exhibition (September-October 2022), and the Embrace Festival, which celebrated the work of disabled artists (September 2022). The 50th celebrations were supported through grants and a '$50 for 50' philanthropic initiative from Creative Partnerships Australia's Plus1 program, which raised nearly $30,000 from over 100 donors.

Program – Schools:

Aboriginal Artists in Schools – Teaching Through Creation Stories

1,145 students and teachers | 11 artists | 6 Schools

A cultural development program establishing long-term connections between a primary school community and local Aboriginal artists and cultural practitioners, the program provides professional learning for Aboriginal artists and teachers as well as Australian Curriculum outcomes for students through an Artist in Residence model. Artists and cultural leaders were engaged from Kurna, Ngarrindjeri, Narungga and Nukunu Nations.

Nunga Days

1300 students and teachers | 23 artists

Nunga Days engages the expertise of Aboriginal Elders, artists and cultural practitioners to teach and share cultural knowledge and experiences through creative workshops delivered to schools, communities and Aboriginal young people. The program initiates meaningful local connections, facilitates learning and celebrates South Australian Aboriginal arts and culture for communities wanting to actively and authentically work towards key pillars of reconciliation – respect, relationships and opportunities. Workshops are delivered over one or multiple days and can provide a ‘taster’ prior to commencing a longer engagement through the Aboriginal Artists in Schools program.

Gig Rig

Over 100 participants | 10 artists

Carclew’s Gig Rig is an all-terrain Mercedes-Benz Sprinter van donated by the CMV Foundation. It is a mobile sound and media studio, and is equipped to host sound recording, song writing, and screen and podcasting activity, as well as providing technical support for live music and dance performances. The Gig Rig was used for training early-career artists, and delivered one event and one school residency.

Culture Beats

8 workshops | 84 participants | 9 artists

Culture Beats is a workshop program for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students aged 9-12, where they engage in music and dance workshops facilitated by First Nations artists. These artists share their own journeys and support students to explore contemporary Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander culture, expressed through artistic practice. Dance workshops have featured traditional and contemporary movement, with music workshops supporting students to write lyrics and compose music with the support of the artistic team. Culture Beats utilises the Gig Rig, Carclew’s mobile recording studio, allowing students to record their music workshop outcomes.

Developing Effective Arts Learning (DEAL)

10 teachers | 7 schools | 196 students | 5 artists

Designed for primary teachers in category 1–4 government schools offering professional learning in dance, drama, visual or media arts through collaboration with a teaching artist, DEAL deepens teacher knowledge and confidence in delivering the Australian Arts Curriculum, and builds capacity to provide engaging and challenging arts programs to improve student learning outcomes. 2022-2023 saw the final delivery of the DEAL program, with the new Carclew in Schools program to launch in August 2023.

SmArts

20 participants | 1 School | 2 artists

SmArts is designed to provide student artists in Years 8 to 12 from disadvantaged schools who are interested in creative arts with links to art organisations and relevant career information. It aims to raise student artists’ educational aspirations and career knowledge of the creative arts through an interconnected creative program. This is a deep-dive program focussed on spending in-depth time with a single class. The program includes in-school weekly workshops on an art form as well as one excursion to an organisation/institution or a guest speaker experience.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2023

1. Statement of Significant Accounting Policies

The Association is domiciled in Australia

This financial report was authorised for issue by the directors on08.....September 2023

The financial report is a special purpose financial report prepared in order to satisfy the financial reporting requirements of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission. The Board has determined that the association is not a reporting entity.

The financial report has been prepared on an accrual basis and is based on historic costs and does not take into account changing money values or, except where specifically stated, current valuations of non-current assets.

The following significant accounting policies, which are consistent with the previous period unless otherwise stated, have been adopted in the preparation of this financial report.

(a) Income Tax

The Association is exempt from Income Tax, pursuant to the Income Tax Assessment Act.

(b) Property, Plant and Equipment

Basis of measurement of carrying amount

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

The carrying amount of property, plant and equipment is reviewed annually by directors to ensure it is not in excess of the recoverable amount from these assets. The recoverable amount is assessed on the basis of the expected net cash flows that will be received from the assets' employment and subsequent disposal. The expected net cash flows have been discounted to their present values in determining recoverable amounts.

Depreciation

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets are depreciated on diminishing value basis in previous years. Fixed assets are depreciated on a prime cost basis over the asset's useful life commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use in current financial year.

Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the shorter of either the unexpired period of the lease or the estimated useful life of the improvements.

The depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable assets are:

Class of Fixed Asset	Depreciation rate
Property, Plant and Equipment	10% - 33%
Theatre Equipment	25%
Motor Vehicles	13%

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed and adjusted, if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount.

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with the carrying amount. These gains and losses are included in the statement of comprehensive income.

The Organisation adopted the Prime Cost Method on fixed assets for the first time in 2021. The adoption of this method has not materially impacted the financial statements and accordingly, the retained surplus at 1 July 2020 has not been adjusted for the first time adoption of this method.

(c) Leases

Lease payments for operating leases, where substantially all the risks and benefits remain with the lessor, are charged as expenses on a straight line basis over the lease term.

With the exception of peppercorn leases, the Association was not party to any other lease agreements at the transition date. The Organisation has applied the optional exemption from the requirement to fair value the right-of-use asset arising from their peppercorn leases for which they incur no or nominal consideration.

Carclaw Incorporated

1. Statement of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

(d) Impairment of Assets

At each reporting date, the Association reviews the carrying amounts of all assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have been impaired. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset, being the higher of the asset's fair value less costs to sell and value-in-use, is compared to the asset's carrying value. Any excess of the asset's carrying value over its recoverable amount is expensed to the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

Where an impairment loss on a revalued individual asset is identified, this is recognised against the revaluation surplus in respect of the same class of asset to the extent that the impairment loss does not exceed the amount in the revaluation surplus for that class of asset.

(e) Employee Benefits

Employee benefits comprise wages and salaries, annual, long-service and non-accumulating sick leave, and contribution to superannuation plans.

Liabilities for wages and salaries expected to be settled within 12 months of balance date are recognised in other payables in respect of employees' services up to reporting date. Liabilities for annual leave in respect of employees' services up to reporting date which are expected to be settled within 12 months of balance date are recognised in the provision for annual leave. Both liabilities are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Liabilities for non-accumulating sick leave are recognised when leave is taken and are measured at the rates paid or payable.

The provision for employees' entitlement to long service leave represents the amount that the Association has a present obligation to pay resulting from employees with more than six years of service provided up to the balance date. The provision for Long Service Leave has been calculated at nominal amounts based on current wage and salary rates and includes related on-costs.

(f) Provisions

Provisions are recognised when the Association has a legal or constructive obligation, as a result of past events, for which it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will result and that outflow can be reliably measured.

Provisions are measured at the best estimate of the amounts required to settle the obligation at the end of the reporting period.

(g) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at-call with banks and other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less.

(h) Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of Goods and Services Tax (GST), except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Tax Office (ATO). In these circumstances the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of an item of the expense. Receivables and payables in the Statement of Financial Position are shown inclusive of GST.

Cash flows are presented in the Cash Flow Statement on a gross basis, except for the GST components of investing and financing activities, which are disclosed as operating cash flows.

(i) Revenue Recognition

Grant Income

Grant revenue is recognised in the income statement when the organisation obtains control of the grant and it is probable that the economic benefits gained from the grant will flow to the organisation and the amount of the grant can be measured reliably.

If conditions are attached to the grant that must be satisfied before it is eligible to receive the contribution, the recognition of the grant as revenue will be deferred until those conditions are satisfied.

When grant revenue is received whereby the organisation incurs an obligation to deliver economic value directly back to the contributor, this is considered a reciprocal transaction and the grant revenue is recognised in the Balance Sheet as a liability until the service has been delivered to the contributor, otherwise the grant is recognised as income on receipt.

Carclew Incorporated

1. Statement of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Donations and bequests

General donations and bequests are recognised as revenue when received. Donations to specific projects are treated as grants in advance and recognised as revenue when the projects are delivered and project expenses incurred.

Interest Revenue

Interest revenue is recognised using the effective interest rate method, which for floating rate financial assets is the rate inherent in the instrument.

Dividend Income

Dividend Income is recognised on a cash basis as dividends are received by the organisation.

Revenue from sale of goods and rendering of services

Revenue from the sale of goods is recognised upon the delivery of goods to customers.

Revenue from the rendering of a service is recognised upon the delivery of the service to customers.

Treatment of Goods and Services Tax (GST)

All revenue is stated net of the amount of Goods and Services Tax (GST)

(j) Trade creditors and other payables

Trade payables and other payables represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Association prior to the end of the financial year that are unpaid. These amounts are usually settled within 30 days or less. The notional amount of the creditors and other payables is deemed to reflect fair value.

(k) Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are recognised and carried at the original invoice amount less any allowance for uncollectable amounts. Normal terms of settlement are 30 days. The notional amount of the receivable is deemed to reflect fair value.

An allowance for doubtful debts is made when there is objective evidence that the Association will not be able to collect the debts. Bad debts are written off when identified.

(l) Reserves

Capital Assets Reserve

The capital asset reserve records funds set aside for future capital assets purchase or maintenance.

Wall Restoration

The capital grant of $125,000 was received from the Department for Education for the wall restoration and balcony repair was recognised as income as performance obligations were satisfied upon completion of the project in June 2022 as required by AASB 15. The portion of the expense for the wall restoration ($103K) was considered to be a leasehold improvement that exceeded the corporate capitalisation limit and was amortised over the remaining term of the operational funding agreement, up to 30 June 2024.

Financial Assets Reserve

The financial assets reserve records revaluation increments and decrements (that do not represent impairment write-downs) that relate to financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF CARCLEW INCORPORATED

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial report, being a special purpose financial report, of Carclew Incorporated, which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2023, and the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in members' funds and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial statements including a summary of significant accounting policies and the statement by the board of directors.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial report of Carclew Incorporated has been prepared in accordance with Div 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012 (ACNC Act), including:

- i. Giving a true and fair view of the registered entities financial position as at 30 June 2023 and of its financial performance for the year then ended; and
- ii. Complying with Australian Accounting Standards to the extent described in Note 1, and Div 60 of the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Regulation 2013.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the entity in accordance with the ACNC Act, the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Emphasis of Matter – Basis of Accounting

We draw attention to Note 1 to the financial report, which describes the basis of accounting. The financial report has been prepared for the purpose of fulfilling the registered entity's financial reporting responsibilities under the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission Act 2012. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Report

The board of directors is responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and have determined that the basis of preparation described in Note 1 to the financial report is appropriate to meet the requirements of the Australian Charities and Note for Profits Commission Act 2012 and is appropriate to meet the needs of the members. The board's responsibility also includes internal control as board determines is necessary to enable the preparation and fair presentation of a financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, management is responsible for assessing the entity's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters relating to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

Paragraph 41(c) of ASA 700 explains that when law, regulation or national auditing standards expressly permit, reference can be made to a website of an appropriate authority that contains the description of the auditor's responsibilities, rather than including this material in the auditor's report, provided that the description on the website addresses, and is not inconsistent with, the description of the auditor's responsibilities below. When the auditor refers to a description of the auditor's responsibilities on a website, the appropriate authority is the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board and the website address is <http://www.auasb.gov.au/Home.aspx>.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
