

MEDIA RELEASE

Mimi Crowe Closes a Chapter at Carclew

Mimi Crowe has made the decision to step down from her role as Chief Executive Officer of Carclew. Carclew acknowledges the substantive contribution Mimi has made to Carclew, particularly her leadership in the renewal of our organisation, the development and delivery of our Strategic plan (2024-2028), and in the reinvigoration of Carclew House programming. Her work has strengthened Carclew's position within the broader Youth Arts sector and has enhanced Carclew's service to young people across South Australia. After recently completing an acting role as Commissioner for Children and Young People for South Australia, Mimi is taking a well-earned break before embarking on her next professional challenge.

Mimi has been a great champion of Carclew's core purpose to have "the greatest impact for the greatest number". The Carclew Board and staff, together with partner organisations and colleagues across the creative and cultural sector, extend their sincere thanks and wish Mimi every success in her future endeavours. Carclew will commence a process to appoint a new Chief Executive Officer during 2026.

About Carclew

Carclew is Australia's largest multi-artform cultural institution dedicated to children and young people. The heart of Carclew is our historic house in North Adelaide, which the government of South Australia gifted in 1971 as a promise that all children and young people have access to art, culture, and creativity. We believe in the power of children and young people as creators, innovators, and world shapers. Through participation in the arts, we inspire and nurture creativity and agency in children and encourage boldness and innovation as they grow. Carclew exists to elevate the youth arts sector, amplify children's voices and provide opportunities for safe creative expression, access to audience experiences and career development pathways.

Vision

To be the home of youth arts and creativity.

Mission

To connect all children and young people to the world of creative possibilities as artists, learners, and audiences.
